News in Sporting World at Home and Abroad

ATHLETICS WILL FLOURISH IN "GYM"

New Y. M. C. A. Structure Provides Home for Amateurism In Sport.

THE EQUIPMENT IS COMPLET .

Place Will Support Everything That's Bealthy in Sporting World-Almost Finished.

Tonight the new Y. M. C. A. building at the corner of State and First South streets is thrown open for a house warming to the friends of the Y. M. C. A. who have given support to the c. A who have seven appear to the movement which resulted in its being built. The building itself will not be ready for occupancy for a month or mare, but it is now nearly enough finshed to allow a description of its principal features and the class of work will strain to accomplish.

dial features and the class of work is will attempt to accomplish.

Now that the baseball world is airing some big scandals, the lesson from which is that crooked sport kills itself—and wrestling is pronounced a dead sport because the incentive for crooked work is too great—and California is atbecause the incentive for crooked work in it is too great—and California is attempting to legislate all boxing contests out of the state, because of the maledrous reputation from fixed fights and "Native Son" decisions, the completion of a big home for amateur athletics in Salt Lake is a signal event. This, because it will be a home for the spirit in sport which refuses to tolerate the lust of gain, as an end of athletic exercise. But two such centers of love or athletics as the inventor loves his the list of the content of love exercise. But two such centers of love for athletics as the inventor loves his science, unselfishly, remain in America, and they are the University and the cooperatively built gymnasium in the clites. Their attitude is that as the clites that as the clites are an exercise ground for school room is an exercise ground for the brain, so the athletic field and the gymnasium are training places for the grawn that's in a man. Until recently schools overlooked the development of brawn, but now in Salt take one may bear discussed the desir-ability of an athletic director in the public schools, and the ery for a "gym" at the University is about the loudest thing heard in the Legislature.

portion is taken up in an auditorium for debate meets, and the like, and a bly symnasium for every sort of help-

"gym" is the thing, and it is what makes the building so valuable to the city. A swimming pool 60 feet long suggests the alaborateness of the plan, and when to that is added a springboard with an eight-foot depth of water to drop into, and a runway of M feet in approach, the luxurious wrinkfurnished the proposition. discount of the state of the st boys and the business men

EXERCISE FOR EVERYBODY. The big gymnasium room itself, bove the swimming pool, is a thing to delight the lover of any kind of exercise. Along the walls are to be 20 cise. Along the walls are to be 20 sets of chest weights, with the floor high, a couple of horses, suspended horizontal bars, flying and traveling rings, and in fact most sorts of a contivances of the gymnasium world.
Even the rowing machines are not overjocked, while the handball court is done in four brick walls, securing a uniform rebound for the ball wherever it may land.

BUILDING FIREPROOF. There is little wood to be encountered a going over the building. It is most-brateel, more steel, and cement. A run-bing track, suspended from the ceiling is the best thing of that nature in the country, for it embraces features learnTHE CHAMPION RUNNER.

John J. Joyce is the ten mile cham ton runner of America. He has twice captured the championship for this distance in the meets of the Amateur yesterday, "is a gathering place for the people. It was built by them. It is meant for them. And whatever fees there are are to protect it to their uses."

A statement of D to the people of the peop people. It was built by them. It is meant for them. And whatever fees there are are to protect it to their uses."

Then he showed his interviewer through a building meant to conserve the double purposes of a home to the roses men loose upon the world, but respectable, a school for the working people, and a gymnasium for organized anatur athletics.

WHAT THE GYM WILL DO.
Over everything at the new Y. M. T. A. home there is to be a spirit of Christian helpfulness, but hardly of piety—especially that sort of givy that is not rugged. The big building has its offices downstairs, its dormitories up stairs, but the main portion is taken up in an auditorium for debate meets, and the like, and a games, pole-vaulting, high jumping, shot-putting and mat work.

One interesting feature is the careful plan for taking care of anyone who may fall or injure himself in any way, may fall or injure himself in any way, and for measuring a man before he is allowed on the floor. The machine used is an expensive one, and provides for the taking of a chart that is an exercise perscription to the holder. "How does the building here compare with other Y. M. C. A. head-quarters—isn't it running ahead of the average a little?" was asked by the interviewer on leaving the building interviewer on leaving the building.

"O, no, it's only a sign of the times, that's all," said Mr. Burtner. "The Y. M. C. A. is composed of young men, and they sense quickly the needs of the coming generation. There are 14 buildings about as good as this going up right now under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. in different parts of the world.

BOISE BASEBALL LINEUP.

Team Organization is Under Way for Coming Season. Boise baseball seems to be well under Boise baseball seems to be well under way already, and all that is holding affairs up is the question of protection. An unhatched counting of chickens at Boise, by the Statesman, is as follows: Charley Reilly will manage the Salt Lake club "Buck" Weaver will have charge of the Boise champions, "Honest John" McCloskey will take the Butte cripples under his wing, Walter Wilmot may pilot the Ogden babes and Jack Flannery will care for the welfare of the Helena aspirants.

ountry, for it embraces features learned from the mistakes of older ones. The suspension girders are inclined to allow one runner to easily pass the man shead of him, with the proper

JACK O'BRIEN.

"Jack O Brien is a fighter who used to be in the light-weight class, but how wants to try conclusions with the ex-champion, Robert Fitzsimmons. There are many who think that Jack will get more than he bargains for in

A safe guess at the Bond would be:
Pitchers—Dan McFarlan, J. G.
Thompson and Willie Dammann.
Catcher—George Hanson.
First Base—C. T. McIntyre.
Second Base—Bert Schilis.
Shortstop—George Babbitt.
Third Base—Gus Klopf.
Outfielders—"Buck" Weaver, Eddie

Outfielders—"Buck" Weaver, Eddle Hammond and "Max" Muller. Willie Dammann, the crack left ander of the Spokane to m of last ear, who has spent the winter in Solse, does not care to return to Spo-ane and wishes to play here. It is sossible that as a matter of fair play Spokane may open negotiations with Thompson to replace him. Thompson iid grand work for Boise last year and very popular with local patrons, but is a high salaried man and might not be willing to stay for the sum Boise can afford to pay him. However, he has an established business here and may change his mind.

and may change his mind.

Dan McFarian won the pennant for Boise last year. He has a host of friends who would be glad to see him back in a cream colored uniform.

Charlie McIntyre finished the season third has for Roise and is well and at third base for Boise and is well and gratefully remembered for the many runs he batted in at opportune times. He is in partnership with Thompson in the Pennant bowling alley and his presence on the home team would be joyously welcomed.

George Babbitt needs no mention to revive his reputation with Boise base-ball patrons. He was the only player in the league who took part in every sterling player and fit for any company.

"Buck" Weaver, who made more hits than any other player in 1904 and who won the watch given to the most popular player in Boise, also needs no introduction. He was the capitain general of the pennant winners and the public has the utmost confidence in his judgment and playing the pennant winners and the public has the utmost confidence in his judgment.

ment and playing ability.

Eddie Hammond is another gentlemanly player with a strong following in the capital. His work last year helped Boise to the top on many an occasion and his friends include every patron of the game in the city.

Bert Schills is a clever second baseman who played in the Western leagflue last year. He is a free hitter and a fast fielder.

and a fast fielder.

Gus Klopf is accounted one of the heaviest batters in the west. He signed with Boise last season and because Spokane would not release him, he spent the summer on the farm rather than break his word with McCloskey. He is such a player as "Buck" Wedver, and would greatly strengthen the team.

"Buck" weaver, and would greatly strengthen the team.
"Max" Muller will be remembered as the lively left fielder of the Salt Lake club. He was the fastest man in the league of 1904, not even excepting our own "Felty" Houtz, and his batting was away above the average.

BAN JOHNSON'S SCHEDULE.

Where the Big Games Will be Played This Year.

An interesting schedule for baseball games of the first class, during the coming season has been made by President Ban Johnson of the merican The New York Americans will open the season at Washington, April 14.

The local season in New York will be opened on April 21, with the Wash-on July 4 the Yankees will meet the Washington learn and on Labor day they will meet Boston.

On May 30 the Yankees will be at Philadelphia, while the New York nationals will have Decoration day in this city.

The Boston Americans will have Bunker Hill day at Boston with Detroits, while the National League team will get Lexington day.
The Boston Americans will be at Washington on May 30.
New York will close the season at Boston.

Detroit opens at Cleveland.
Chicago will open at Chicago with St.
Louis on April 14.
On July 4 Chicago will have Detroit in Chicago.

On July 4 Chicago, in Chicago, Boston will open the season at Phil-adelphia on April 14. Cleveland will have May 30, July 4 and September 2 for home games.

BRUTALITY OF FOOTBALL GAME.

President Harper of Chicago Disagrees With Harvard's President.

PRAISES CHICAGO COACH

People Behind the Game Think it ls Uplifting, Not Brutalizing - No Accidents Here.

A large flow of editorial comment has been started over America by a recent declaration of President Charles W. Ellot of Harvard university that football is brutal, and most Salt Lake editors have added their word to that of the Harvard president. Yet it doesn't go with the rooters to the game, who point out that to measure football by the accidents that occur is like trying to estimate the value of matches by listing the buildings burned down through dropping them.

Utah played a season through this year with hardly a man off the field a day for lack of vim to get out. A seri-ous injury was not heard of on the field. Yet the game it put up was of the most deadlers and overland the Yet the game it put up was of the most dashing and cyclonic variety, far faster than anything seen in the west in years, and out of a class with anything played, even on the coast in point of speed. The man who attempted anyone of the thing complained of by the Harvard president wouldn't have lasted a minute on Maddock's squad, or remained in a game after he was discovered by the referee. He would have been as much out of caste with his fellow players as with the doctors who low players as with the doctors who knock the sport.

An interesting movement in football circles that stands out in contrast to the action of President Eliot, is the tribute paid to Coach Stagg, by Presi-dent Harper of Chicago university. In this statement, too, the ethics of football figure, and an estimate of them is given that the backers of the sport recognize as true to what they are striving after.

Coach Stagg of Chicago ranks with Coach Stagg of Chicago ranks with Walter Camp and Yost of Michigan as the leaders of American football thought. Michigan's coach hasn't quite the standing of Stagg because of the constant claim that he imports players, and pays men with records to come there. Wisconsin papers are just now loud in this protest, but Utah men of records have letters in their pockets from Wisconsin that make the charge of professionalism against Yost, come professionalism against Yost, come with mighty little grace.

PRESIDENT HARPER VS. ELIOT. The tribute of President Harper to

Stagg is as follows:

The story of Mr. Stagg's work in university athletics in the west is a long versity athletics in the west is a long versity athletics. story, one that reaches far out in many directions, and one full of significance. first became acquainted Stagg when he was at the height of his student athletic career at Yale. For three years he was a student in my classes. An attachment was formed be-tween us which, so far as I am concerned, has grown closer every year since that time. I remember distinctly the interviews in which we discussed the interviews in which we discussed the question of his coming to Chicago and taking charge of the department of physical culture and athletics. It was evident he had certain ideals of athletic work and of athletic policy, and his coming to Chicago was dependent wholly upon his having every opportunity to work out these ideals. He came; he was given the opportunity he de sired, and as a result it is not too much to say that western university athletics have been altogether transformed.

I do not mean to say there would have l do not mean to say there would nave been no change in these 12 or 15 years in western college athletics if Mr. Stagg had not come to Chicago. This, of course, would be absurd. But I do mean to say Mr. Stagg has contributed to this transformation more than all othhis indefatigable effort, his broad mind his indefatigable effort, his broad mind-ed zeal and his absolute fairness of mind and honesty of heart have ex-erted an influence upon western uni-versity and college athletics that has been felt far and wide and produced re-sults of which we may all reasonably he proud. I am myself of the opinion that great progress has been made in these dozen years, and if this is true, no one will fall to ascribe at least a large portion of the credit for this to Mr. Stagg In the reforms that still require to be worked out he will be one of the lead-ers. When the football season shall have been shortened and the game on Thanksgiving day abandoned; when it has been agreed that no man shall be accepted as a candidate for an intercollegiate team who has not been a member of the college or the university for at least one scholastic year; when the well meant but pernicious influence of the alumni in certain phases of athand has been given up, and when we shall be able to conduct college athle-tics as games between gentlemen, withtics as games between gentlemen, without the professional accompaniment of gate fees, with all the deteriorating and demoralizing influence connected with this professional policy—when these reforms have come about the world will begin to appreciate some of the ideals toward which many, and among these

Mr. Stagg, have been working. I am

Because the other man has been successful and you have not, don't attribute it all to luck; he has brains too."

TREE TEA SELECTED WISDOM

The pure, good tea, sold in packagas only. M.J. Brandenstein & Co. Importers, San Francisco.

confident that it is the universal wish on the part of college and university men that Mr. Stagg may see these and many other reforms carried into effect, Knowing, as I do, that athletic sport is one of the most important agencies in contributing to the ethical uplifting of young men in college, and realizing, as I do, the spiendid work in this direction which Mr. Stagg has accomplished, I rejoice (1) that he has lived, (2) rection which Mr. Stagg has accomp-lished, I rejoice (I) that he has lived, (2) that, being such a man, he has given his life to college athletics, and (3) that the field of his work has been Chicago and the University of Chicago. WILLIAM R. HARPER. University of Chicago.

Football last and West.

The main difference between Western and Eastern football," says Charles Baird of Michigan in the Illustrated Sporting News, grows out of the relative importance attached to the development of the offenseive as contrasted to the defensive game. In the east the defense receives the first consideration and has the most attention. In the west more prominence is given the offensive. It is true that these distinctions are not so marked as they were a few years ago, but they still hold in a lesser degree. Anyone who carefully observes the scores of all the leading college teams will note that in the contests between the strong western teams, both elevens generally score, while in the east the victor usually sluts out his opponent. Why is this? The reason for this difference is not difficult to find. It is due to the fact that the systems of coaching are different. At Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Pennsylvania, they have what is called like graduate system of coaching. It is partly professional, though the coach is sometimes a graduate.

It happens that under the single coach system the players are not so highly developed in the fine points of the game, in the little tricks of hand and foot, which go so far to make the finished player, mor so thoroughly grounded in the rudimentary principles of the game. It is in these respects I believe the Western players are inferior to the eastern, when the latter have been coached by a body of graduates, who are working together.

CROOKED SPORT IN CANADA.

CROOKED SPORT IN CANADA.

American Skaters Don't Talk Kindly of Treatment Over the Border.

Amateurs in the sport field, who regard the progress of muscular development and the contest for supremacy in brawn as worthy of consideration on the same grounds that mental development and contests for brain supremacy are, do not take kindly to the money making element, and especially premacy are, do not take kindly to the money making element, and especially to the crooked streaks that show out now and then. It was in this spirit that the supporters of organized baseball decreed the death of Pitcher Tayler, and now comes a sport-kick from Canada that probably means the freezing through a social chill, of international skating on this continent. The statements of the men who were in the contests at Montreal are given in an exchange as follows:

Phil Kearney of the New York Athletic club team, who was thrown in the three-mile event, had to be carried to the train, as his leg is laid open and the knee badly bruised.

W. T. Heyward, the Brooklyn skater, the knee badly bruised.

W. T. Heyward, the Brooklyn skater, says he was thrown twice in the shorter events and deliberately in each instance. E. A. Taylor, another New York on, says: "We were victims of some the dirtiest work I've ever known of in amateur competitions, and the fact that more Americans did not get places in the events is due to the constrated efforts of the Canadian skat-

THE POCATELLO MANNER.

Function of the Chief of Police at a Boxing Bout as Seen by an Oregonian.

Portland Oregonian-One of Portland's athletic enthusiasts has just re-turned from the Middle West with an account of one of the most extraordinaccount of one of the most extraordinary boxing contests that was ever held. It occurred at Pocatello, Idaho, some days since. Through missing a train the Portland man was forced to remain in that burg over night. His grief was entirely dispelled when he heard that two youths, Spider Somebody and Kid Somebody else, were body and kid Somebody else, were scheduled to appear that evening at the Pocatello Opera House to grill each other for and during a period of 20 The pair were middleweights and

The pair were middleweights and they started in the first round with a ferocity that promised results. This whirlwind kind of work kept up until the fifth round, when the Spider began going down for the count. Finally, after a stiff jab, he lay down as if he had gone his limit and the referee began to reel off the vital count of ten. The referee had counted seven and the prostrate man was writhing about the prostrate man was writhing about on the floor as if trying to recover him self when something happened. This something was the chief of police. John Ford, who stands six feet three in his stockings. As he sprang into the ring the fight fans thought the battle was enced. Several started in disgust for But Chief Ford's intentions had been mistaken. He was not going to do such a commonplace thing as stop the mill. What he did was to seize the qualling Spider by the nape of the neck and drag him to his feet. "Fight, you little snipe, fight, or I'll give you just 90 days on the rockpile."

And the Spider did fight. He fought with all the fight there was in him and he got the decision over the Kid in the tenth round on a knockout.

BUTTE NOT BUBBLING.

No Enthusiasm in Smelter City for Outlaw Ball.

Butte is not in raptures over the Butte is not in raptures over the baseball season, especially a season under outlaw ball. A poll of the city business men by a writer for an exchange has failed to locate a single man who is really a supporter of league ball or any kind of ball. Two years ago there were many of them, but now, according to the writer they have dwindled away as the town grows wise to dled away, as the town grows wise to "fakes" that were pulled off there be-suse Butte looked like an "easy" town.

"fakes" that were pulled off there because Butte looked like an "easy" town. Continuing the articlee says:

It must be remembered the sport game is dead in the city. Put on the best there is, the fight promoters know they cannot arouse the spontaneous enthusiasm nor get the support of two years or a year ago. There is little bowling and no basket ball this winter. Coursing went punk last fall. Football and hicycle racing dropped out yeers ago and track athletics and indoor contests never did gain a footing. Butte people are taking a more serious view of things. They are not slinging their money as they used to, every one has noticed. It has got to be a good game before they shell out the hard dollars. With this in mind, what is the local attitude toward the present contestants in the baseball war wasing over this territory? The moneyed man in Butte has not spoken yet. Not a dollar has been advanced to back either Wilmot's or Lucas' game. Whichever aide wins with the national board tonight, to the victor is little more than a hatful of air, not even warm. Two things are essential to successful bail in Butte, good backing to put a team in the field and a barrel of money and it must be raised without the help of the street railway company, which, through Mr. Wharton, has been the largest contributor in the Past. Now comes the question as to Butte's

Now comes the question as to Butte's attitude toward outlaw baseball. By a little study it can be shown that has been the plan of the Pacific National league directors all along. Mr. Wharton's natural respect for law and order sets him against it, and Mr. Lane does not favor it. But it may be if a good article of the game is put on, and, it is said this is possible by signing contract jumpers from other leagues; the fans will stand for it.

Everything goes to show the P. N., people do not expect to gain the sanction of the national board, despite the fact that they have framed up a strong case in support of their contention that they have gone to the great expense of sending C. W. Williams of Spokane to New York city to present their evidence to the national board at its meeting tonight. The Pacific National league directors have a strong case; they are imquestionably in the right. They did pay for protection for his reight. They did pay for protection for least when the revidence to the national board at its meeting tonight. The Pacific National league directors have a strong case; they are imquestionably in the right. They did pay for protection for his reight. They did pay for protection for his meeting tonight. The Pacific National league did some sharp dealing to gain his end and the sanction for his proposed Northwest league. He put the franchises of Butte, Spokane and Salt Lake on the burn," in the parlance of the street, and threw down the managers of these clubs by having their players—all of more or less value—sat free, thus causing each a considerable loss.

WHAT IS LUCAS DOING?

WHAT IS LUCAS DOING? Creating a Great Deal of Talk and That' About All.

There is a rather peculiar dispatch printed in the Portland Telegraph regarding W. H. Lucas' intentions in the Pacific National, Northwest, Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Please-Some-One-Tell-Us-What-League-It-Is. Here is the story under a Vancouver date line:

Here is the story under a Vancouver date line:

"W. H. Lucas has returned to the other side of the line after explaining to baseball enthusiasts in Vancouver and Victoria the scheme for a new league embracing Bellingham, Spokane, Butte and Helena and the British Columbia towns, He sought out busines men here and submitted a proposition as follows: That $3,000 be raised in subscriptions so that a team can be entered from here, $1,000 to be deposited with the manager as a guarantee of good falin, and to be returnable at the end of the senson, providing the local club has fulfilled its obligations, the $2,000 to go towards meeting the lottal expenses entailed in engaging a manager to employ players and superintend details of organization.

"To insure the British Columbia teams being treated properly in the matter of gate receipts, he agrees that the grandstand and gate receipts for each schedule match shall be equally divided between the contesting teams after the usual deduction of 10 per cent towards a reserve fund to defray incidental expenses in connection with the games. Lucas claims that in this way the larger cities will help out the smaller ones, thus putting all on an equal basis as far as finances are concerned.

"In order there shall be no conflict between the league and the ministerial associations in the Canadian cities, Mr. Lucas says there will be no Sunday games in either Vancouver or Victoria. Between 55 and $9 games would, he imagines, be played here during the summer, and the receipts, he feels, should suffice to make each club pay its own way.

"Mr. Lucas met with as much encouragement in Victoria as here. There are a number of enthusiasts in both cities who would go to great lengths to insure a season of really first class ball. It was a great disappointment that no grounds could be secured last year and that the Dugdale scheme fell through. In Victoria amateur ball was played, and the interest taken was not very large. What the hea-

Dugdale scheme fell through. In Victoria amateur ball was played, and the interest taken was not very large. What the people want to see is professional ball play-

SOME ETHICS BY ADE.

George Comes to Assistance of President Ellot With New Rules.

George Ade has come to the assistance of the rules committee on football with some suggestions that conform, in part, to the ideas of President Eliot. The ladylike code is as follows:

Selection of players—The players shall be selected by the faculty and the student who has received the highest grade in Greek anthology shall be captain. No student shall be eligible unless he has an established reputation Weather-In case of rain, snow, high wind, or extreme heat, a contest may be postponed or transferred to a classliminaries-When a team appears on the field of contest it shall be greet on the held of context it said be gived ed with the Chautauqua salute, which consists of waving the handkerchief. After this a few minutes of social in-tercourse shall follow, with friendly chats concerning books and writers. The Toss-Instead of tossing a coin to

The Toss—Instead of tossing a coin to decide which team gets the ball, the two captains shall be called upon to extract the cube root of a number given by the professor of mathematics.

Advancing the Ball—The ball having been put in the center of the field, the umpire, who must be a professor of geology, exhibits to the team having the ball a specimen of a fossil. All the members of the team who think they can name the geological period to which is belongs hold up their hands. Any player may be chosen, and if the answers correctly his side gets two yards. If he also knows the scientific name of the fossil he can take five yards more.

yards, if he also knows the scientific name of the fossil he can take five yards more.

Penalties—Any player who makes a grammatical error, mispronounces a word or seeks assistance from a fellow player, shall be deemed guilty of an offside play, and his side shall be penalized five yards.

Resuming Play—On resuming play after a touchdown, one of the players known as "it" is blindforded and the other players join hands and circle round him, singing:

London bridge is falling down,
Falling down, falling down,
London bridge is falling down,
So farewell, my ladies.

While the players are circling around the player known as "it" touches one of the players in a gentlemanly manner and asks him three questions, which must be answered. Then he tries to guess the name of the player. If he succeeds he advances the ball five yards, yards, Conduct—No pushing, scuffling or bofsterous conversation will be permitted. Both players and spectators must maintain absolute silence during the mental tests.—Chicago Tribune.

Spokane Team Forming.

Spokane is evidently not figuring on laying down entirely in case its outlaw ball or none. Her manager, Matt Stanley, gave the following interview to the Capitol News:

"Spokane will have one of the best

The University of Montana wants a return football game with Utah. Does she also want the return score?

The Athletic Council of Berkeley college, alias the University of California, has refused to entertain any negotiations for a game with Utan next season. The Mentlemen have probably 'read Utah's scores. The college is not proud the property anythmy. of its team just now, anyhow,

A dance will be given at the University of Utah on Washington's hirthday to raise money for the sweaters due the football team. One would think the team itself had earned them.

John L. Sullivan's challenge to Cor-bett is styled a "doleful voice from the grave," It more probably is a voice from an empty pocket book, with old age coming on.

Now its the bowlers that are making Milwaukee famous.

Jimmy Britt seems to be perfectly fa-miliar with the balk line when it comes to arranging matches with men just a little out of his class. However White will be at liberty to, return to England at his own expense if Britt decides that Nelson is worth another "go" in the Native Son town. Hot Springs is a great name for a place that has to be closed up because it froze solid with no prospect of thaw-ing out this winter.

Maybe, though, Berkeley would consider a proposition to meet Utah in track events. A dispatch states that Coach Williams has any number of veterans with a promising lot of fresh-men for the track and baseball events.

Caesar Young owned race horses, that now belong to Mrs. Young, whoever killed Caesar, and now she is going to Los Angeles to operate their race-track fortunes.

A committee of the Montana legisla-ture, upon visiting the school of mines, found it was like that of Utah-mostly in need of rocks. It got $40,000 out of

Pecatello manner

COT FLOWERS

ROSES. CARNATIONS. VIOLETS.

FERNS AND GREENS. Of the choices varieties.

Come and see us when you are in need of wreaths, bouquets, and funeral designs, we will give you the very best work at the lowest prices. Delivery free to any part of the city. Floral department.

WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO...

News Building, Phones. 374, "By the Monument."

grain Show Window. See McConahay's Bargain Show Window. 41 W. Second South.

Salt Lake Turf Exchange 208 MAIN STREET.

Direct wire for all Sporting Events. CALIFORNIA and EASTERN RACES,

NEW COMSTOCK TURF EXCHANGE.

No. 23 West Second South.

New Orleans. San Francisco and Los Angeles Races.

Your Physician Will Say That next to a trip to French Lick Springs, the Speediest Reuet and Surest Cure for Constination, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Diseases and similar affintions in

CONCENTRATED PLUTO 15c., 25c. and 35c. WATER

You get it at the Drug Store and Drink it at Home. Write for our FREE Illustrated Booklet describing the Famous French Lick Springs Hotel (450 rooms), and Mineral Waters. Open all the year.

FRENCH LICK SPRINGS HOTEL COMPANY, THOS. TAGGAPT, Pres "On the Monon Route." FRENCH LICK, INDIANA THE PERSON OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PERSON OF THE PERSON